

Terms of Reference

Position	Visiting Professor / Founder Dean
Field of expertise	One scientific field related to the School's fields as listed below; science management experience in teaching and research
University	Adama University, Ethiopia
Faculty	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- School of Engineering and Information Technology (SoE)- School of Business Administration, Management and Trade (SoB)- School of Pedagogic and Vocational Teacher Education (SoP)- School of Humanities and Natural Sciences (SHN)
University	Adama University shall become a model technical university for Ethiopia emphasizing economic development. Current enrolments (SS2008): 6000 regular students, 3000 evening (extension) students, 2000 summer course students. Enrolment figures are expected to grow considerably and fast.
Duration of contract	3 years (to be renewed)
Start date	As soon as possible
Department information

Tasks & Responsibilities

Teaching	Optional in a field related to the school's scientific fields, supervise MA-/PhD-Thesis's in related fields.
Research	Optional in a field related to the school's scientific fields.
Administration and change-agent functions	The Founder Dean is tandem partner of an Ethiopian Founder Dean for the period of appointment. He or she is in charge of managing the setup and operation of a newly established school and the associated departments according to the objectives and vision of Adama University described in the document "Setting up Adama University – A Framework". All Founder Deans are members of the university's Extended Management Team. The tandem approach shall provide know how transfer and facilitate the implementation of a modern school management and formation of international standard schools emphasizing applied sciences in learning, teaching and research. The schools shall have a considerable amount of autonomy within the university.
Additional tasks	Optional supervision of MA/PhD dissertations in a field related to the school's scientific fields. Facilitate twinning program development and practice oriented study reforms. Facilitate industry university linkage.
Academic, professional and personal requirements	Profound experience in academic teaching and research, emphasizing applied sciences. Proven experience in science management in learning and applied research.
Contact	president@adama-university.net